ABOUT Takeshi and QUICK USA

Meet Takeshi, a dedicated career consultant whose life took a significant turn after a transformative encounter with a JET program teacher in Ishikawa Prefecture during his middle school days. Inspired by this experience, Takeshi is on a mission to give back by offering career support to JET program alumni, drawing from his own journey to guide them towards professional success and personal growth.

QUICK USA, Inc. is a Japanese job agency with offices in major U.S. cities, committed to supporting job seekers from diverse backgrounds and industries. Our services include career counseling, interview preparation, and job placement, all aimed at prioritizing your career success.
